

We need more diversity, more wholeness in the coverage of current events. The main networks are giving the same coverage. I am offended that the first debate by Democratic Presidential candidates [5/3/03] was not covered live on any of the 3 major networks or PBS. This is a matter of public information. There must be full, fair coverage.

Broadcast ownership by fewer and fewer owners limits diversity. I am opposed to it.